GRECIAN FORCES OCCUPY SALONIKI

Terrible Massacre of Non-Moslem Population Preceded Its Fall.

CALL ISSUED FOR HOLY WAR

Constantinople Hospitals Overcrowded With Wounded and Symptoms of Cholera Have Appeared—The Powers

London, Nov. 8.—An uncensored dispatch received by the Daily Chronicle from Constantinople, says:

"Friday: Saloniki has been occupied by the Greek troops. Their approach was attended by awful scenes.

"Before the Greeks entered the town the elements of disorder broke loose and a terrible massacre of the non-Moslem population took place. Shooting and looting were general. When the Greeks took possession they imprisoned all the Pasha's officials and Turkish officers. The Turks in captivity in Saloniki number 27,000.

Wounded Arriving

Constantinople, Nov. 8.—Pitiful scenes continued to be witnessed daily with the arrival of trains loads of wounded from the front. Almost without exception the wounded are on the verge of collapse from exhaustion.

Many have been without attention for days and a majority of them without food or water for 24 hours.

The hospitals already are overcrowded and symptoms resembling cholera have appeared. Those suspected of having the disease are isolated in a special shed. If the dread scourge should come to Constantinople, where already there is so much distress and suffering among the wounded and refugees, the consequences are too horrible to contemplate.

Turks Abandon Hope

London, Nov. 8.—Judging from tonight's dispatches, Constantinople virtually has abandoned hope of the ability of the Turks to offer serious resistance at the Tchatalja line and is viewing the necessity of calling the city's manhood to the defense of the city itself. If this is the case, the end of the war cannot be far distant.

The Greeks today achieved the crowning feat of their campaign by occupying Saloniki. It is not known yet whether the Turkish garrison of 15,000 evacuated the city prior to the coming of the Greeks or surrendered. It is believed, however, that they evacuated.

The Greeks still must capture Janina Adrianople and Scutari also hold out, but it is reported that the two principal forts outside of Adrianople have been captured. A dispatch to the Vienna Reichspost says pourparlers for the surrender of Adrianople have begun.

Tales of Rapine.

Constantinople, Nov. 7. (By way of Kustendje, Roumania)—Stories of the distress which prevails among the Turkish troops, of the panic which seized upon various bodies of the men and what is worse, tales of pillage, rapine and massacre, continue to come in from various points. It is reported that Nazim Pasha, the Turkish commander-in-chief, has decided to send to their homes several thousand men who have shown the white feather on the field of battle.

Reports of the excesses of the fleeing Turkish troops in the town of Silivri, a port on the sea of Marmora, southwest of the Tchatalja line, apparently are authentic.

Many of the inhabitants are said to have been massacred and the town was completely burned. The population of Silivri was mostly Greek.

The lack of news from the theatre of operations confirms the view already telegraphed that the Bulgarians, as well as the Turks, are much exhausted from the fierce battles at Lule Burgas and Tchorlu.

Both sides apparently are resting for a few days to recuperate, replenish supplies and await reinforcements.

The Turks are utilizing the breathing spell to prepare for the final effort to restrain the Bulgarians at the Tchatalja line. Large numbers of the first reserves are arriving from the Anatolian provinces and the government also is drawing upon the divisions of Ezeru and Raibart, Asiatic Turkey, which previously had not been touched. Several batteries of artillery have been sent to Tchatalja, including 54 guns confiscated from the Servians at the beginning of the war.

The Moslem public feeling is strongly in favor of resisting the allies to the uttermost.

Greeks Take Saloniki.

Athens, Nov. 8.—The Greek army, commanded by Crown Prince Constantime, occupied Saloniki, the Turkish stronghold in Southwestern Turkey, in Europe at noon today.

The Greek capital was illuminated this evening in celebration of the downfall of Saloniki. Services of praise were held in various churches.

King George received Crown Prince Constantine's telegram at Ghent and immediately started for the captured city by special train. A solemn Te Deum was celebrated in the cathedral here and the streets of the capital were filled with people singing, waving flags and cheering for Crown Prince Constantine and the army.

Tennessee and Montana W... Be Headed for Ottoman Waters Cutter Is Ordered There to Protect Americans

Washington, Nov. 8.—While active preparations are being made to get the armored cruisers Tennessee and Montana headed towards Turkish waters within 47 hours to protect Americans, the revenue cutter Unalga, now at Port Said, probably will be turned back from the Suez canal and ordered to rush to the Turkish coast, where after a three and one-half days' trip, she could arrive a full fortnight ahead of the big cruisers.

The Unalga is a fine new craft, commanded by Captain R. O. Crisp. She carries a crew of 70 men and if the larger vessels of the European fleet should overlook other foreigners in their zeal for their own nationality, the Unalga could furnish refuge for 500 or more Americans.

The Tennessee, the flagship of Rear Admiral Knight, who will command the expedition, and the Montana, each will carry 700 sailors, as well as one company of marine each.

A special train is now taking 493 bluejackets from the Norfolk Navy Yard to fill out the ship's crews. Captain Harry A. Field will be in command of the Tennessee, while Captain W. B. Fletcher will command the Montana. Both vessels always carry six months' supplies and with the stocks of their larders increased, they could feed a vast number, should famine be in the train of disaster that now threatens Americans and other foreigners in Turkey.

Except for the little gunboat Scorpion, station ship at Constantinople, which scarcely counts as a warship, these cruisers will be the first American man-of-war to pass through the Straits, since the old Hartford, of Civil War fame, was allowed to anchor in front of Constantinople, by special decree of the Sultan, to the no-small dismay and alarm of certain of the European powers, which vigorously protested against the allowance of a privilege to the Yankee ship, which was denied to the great powers of Europe.

PRISONERS WERE CHEERED

Police Had to Disperse Crowd at Lopizzo Trial

Salem, Mass., Nov. 8.—Sympathizers of Ettor, Giovannitt and Caruso, leaders of the Lawrence textile strike, on trial here for the murder of Anna Lopizzo, victim of a strike riot last Winter, were driven from the Court House doors today by the police when they congregated to cheer the prisoners. Later when court adjourned for the day, a smaller group of workers, men and women, lined upon the sidewalks half a block from the Court House and shouted to the prisoners as they were driven by in carriages on the way to the jail. City Marshall Lehan, of Salem, has directed that no crowds be permitted to stand around the Court House and an extra police guard has been stationed there.

Proceedings today were further enlivened when a circular attacking the testimony submitted in the trial by the commonwealth was called to the attention of District Attorney Atwill. The circular signed by the Ettor-Giovannitti defense committee, charged that the prosecution had not called on a "decent citizen of Lawrence" to testify, and declaring that "honest men's lives will not be jeopardized by such evidence." Speaking of the general strike, it concludes with the assertion that the workers "have the power to wrench the bloody hands of capitalism from the throats of innocent men," and that they will save the defendants.

The district attorney when asked about the circular tonight would not say whether any official notice would be taken of it.

GUILFORD'S OFFICIAL.

Average Democratic Majority Was 1,681—Other News Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 8.—The official returns from Tuesday's election in Guilford county were made known last evening. The average Democratic majority was 1,681, with Capt. Rankin receiving the greatest vote of any Democrat—3,940—and Maj. Stedman, for Congress, second highest vote, 3,918. Mr. Curry, the Republican-Progressive candidate for Congress, received 2,263 votes. Craig received 3,874 votes; Meares 1,685, and Settle 661. In the electoral vote Wilson received 3,830; Roosevelt 1,979, and Taft 460, while Debs polled a total of 43 in Greensboro and Guilford.

One of the pretty social events of the season was the marriage at the First Presbyterian church last evening in the presence of a large and distinguished company of friends and relatives, of Miss Mary Lewis Fry, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. J. W. Fry, and Mr. Pierce Christie Rucker. Immediately following the wedding an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents and later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Rucker left for New York and Canada on a two weeks' bridal tour.

New York, Nov. 8.—When Colonel Roosevelt was informed today that an accident policy for $25,000 had been taken out last June in behalf of his family by The Outlook, and that the policy was in force when he was shot, he declined to accept any indemnity, and directed that the policy be surrendered.

VETERAN WIREMEN IN NEW YORK CASE

Swindlers Who Fleeced Southerners Are Old at the Game.

TWO MORE ARE ARRESTED

Pittsburg Man Also Fleeced—Name of "J. N. Dawsing" Is Given In Case—Developments of Yesterday In Gotham

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, Nov. 8. — Although the police are very reticent in giving out information as to their progress in ferreting out the chief actors in what has come already to be called the "Wilmington Gink Wire-Tapping Case," yet, though the New York reporters got little additional inside information to print, your correspondent secured a few important points aside from the official court proceedings which, of course, could not be suppressed.

Early today two more arrests were made under orders of Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty. They were a man whom the police say bears the name of John Kay, but whom it is believed was the actual steerer who with his "Invalid" wife, settled last May in Wilmington and communicated the great secret of the "Golden Fleece" of pool room gamblers and bookmakers to Dentist Powell and his intimate friend, Attorney Kirby Cleveland Sidbury. He was arrested at the Southern Hotel, at Broadway and Fifty-fourth street, where he had recently been stopping with a woman called his wife, under the name of John Kay and wife. Yesterday the woman left with her trunks, it is learned, quite unexpectedly and the police say, perhaps not exactly truly, that they have no trace of her present whereabouts or what route she took for her quick getaway. In the Westside court Kay vehemently protested against his arrest, said he was a respectable retired man of means and denied ever having been a swindler. The police had arrested him as a suspicious character and Magistrate Murphy held him on a short affidavit under $10,000 bail bonds to give the police a chance to investigate him thoroughly and make out a case against him as a co-conspirator in the swindling of the Wilmingtonians. Up to this hour he has not furnished bail and he demands a separate hearing before the magistrate for his case, independently of the Gondorf brothers, Charles and Frederick, the latter of which was arraigned before the magistrate under the assumed name of Frank Graham and the former who was fully identified by Lawyer Sidbury as the alleged "Manager McDonald, of the Western Union Telegraph Company Racing Bureau."

Gondorfs Give Bond

Both were held under $10,000, which they promptly furnished and were released to await the action of the grand jury, if they waive the examination set for all arrested in the case before the police court on Tuesday next.

The other man who was arrested is an old-timer, whose picture decorates the "Rogues Gallery" of many an European and American police headquarters as a notorious swindler. He is sixty years old and his real name is said to be Joseph Krokolski, a Polish Jew, born in Krakow, Poland. He is generally better known to the police as "Sir John Gray," and "Paper Collar Joe." He was identified also fully as one of the swindlers at the New York end by the trusting Attorney Sidbury. He also up to this time languishes in the Tombs in default of the $10,000 bail under the same charge as the others—a conspirac to swindle, defraud and rob the astute Wilmington business men.

"Sir John's" Record

"Paper Collar Joe" is well-known as one of the most successful and astute criminals of two generations and is much more experienced even than either of the Gondorf brothers, though Charlie is dubbed in criminal circles as the "King of Wiremen" because of his many exploits in pulling off at pickings off the gulls whom he entices into his wire-tapping net. It was he who has to his credit the crime of fleecing William F. Walker, the sanctimonious church deacon and banker of New Britain, of a large part of the $565,000 which the pious cashier Walker stole from the New Britain Savings Bank, to go against the ancient wire-tapping swindle six years ago and afterward became a poverty stricken hobo and fugitive from justice. Charlie has been keeping pretty close since then, sticking pretty close to the gin mill which he owns and runs at Amsterdam avenue and Eighty-Second street, which is palatially fitted up and which is designated on its signs as "The Store." Only recently he was loudly proclaiming that the wire-tapping game was old, played- out and dead as a doornail but he was evidently playing 'possum, relying on his "suckers" which he admits he thinks are born every second not to disgrace themselves by squealing, but swallow their losses in silence. He is 50 years old, and his brother Fred, 45.

JACK JOHNSON SENT TO JAIL

Negro Pugilist Could Not Furnish $30,000 Bail and Occupies Cell in County Jail—Prospective Bondsman Held.

Chicago, Nov. 8.—Jack Johnson, champion heavyweight pugilist of the world, tonight occupies a cell in the county jail, due to his failure to furnish a $30,000 bond for his release on a charge of violating the Mann Act. Judge Landis held a night session to give the pugilist an opportunity to obtain new bondsmen, but he failed.

Albert C. Jones, who attempted to qualify as one of the pugilist's bondsmen, was held in $10,000 bail on a charge of perjury after it had been shown he had scheduled property which under the name of "A. Charles Jones," he previously had deeded to his wife. Jones was remanded to the custody of the United States marshal along with Johnson.

Catherine Dorsey, at whose home the young white girl, Lucille Cameron, lived for several weeks, was arrested this afternoon. She had been hiding in a barn for three weeks. She was held under $5,000 bond as a witness in the Johnson case, and also was remanded to the marshal's custody.

In his extended fight for bond Johnson shed tears, pleaded, offered cash bond in almost any amount and employed two attorneys in an effort to obtain his release. Three prospective bondsmen failed to qualify and one of them, Albert C. Jones, was sent to jail after he had failed to obtain a bond of $10,000 for his appearance in court next Monday, to answer a charge of contempt, which was lodged against him by the court when he attempted to schedule property said to belong to his wife.

Both District Attorney Wilkerson and Judge Landis refused to consider a cash bond.

"An unparalleled attempt to swindle this court by offering unqualified bondsmen has been made," said Judge Landis. "I will not consider a cash bond."

Mr. Wilkerson said he understood Johnson intended to leave this country on November 30th, if released. The offense with which he is charged is not subject to extradition.

At the jail door Edward F. Wiegle, a newspaper photographer, attempted to take a fishlight picture of Johnson and the pugilist knocked him down with a heavy cane.

"I want a dozen candles, so I can have more light, a box of cigars and a case of champagne," Johnson demanded. This was refused and finally he was given a bottle of milk.

MOTHER AND BABY FOUND DEAD.

Their Throats Cut, Supposedly by Mentally Unbalanced Parent.

Uniontown, Pa., Nov. 7.—Mrs. Mary Wilson and her baby were found dead in a room at their home, near Farmington, this morning by her daughter, Mary. Mrs. Wilson's throat had been cut and the boby's head almost severed.

It is thought Mrs. Wilson, in a fit of melancholia seized her husband's razor and after killing the infant committed suicide.

OUTLINES

Senator Hoke Smith yesterday declared the re-organization of the next Senate by the Democrats was assured and said they would have 50 members in that body.

According to complete returns from California, Roosevelt has finally captured that State, although his electoral vote may be divided. A contest in the State is probable.

Jack Johnson was sent to jail yesterday when he was unable to raise a $30,000 bond in connection with his indictment for alleged violation of the Mann white slave act.

The United States cruisers Tennessee and Montana have been ordered to Turkish waters to protect Americans, and the revenue cutter Unalga, which is at Port Said, has also been ordered to sail immediately for the Turkish coast.

Congressmen have begun to get ready for the short session which meets in December, but leaders in the Democratic party think little important legislation will be passed, as they desire to wait for the convening of the new Congress.

Nine men were killed and 15 injured yesterday in a head-on collision between a freight and a work train on the Louisville & Nashville Railroad near Emerson, Ga.

William Hunter was arrested in Brooklyn yesterday and held in $10,000 bail on the charge of complicity in the wire-tapping game in which K. C. Sidbury and Dr. J. W. Powell, of Wilmington, N. C., recently lost $25,000.

SUMS UP STATUS OF NEXT SENATE

Reorganization by the Democrats Assured, Declares Hoke Smith.

CAN RELY SAFELY ON FIFTY

Survey of Returns Show 48 Democrats And 41 Republicans Already Elected and Seven Seats Still Remain Doubtful

Washington, Nov. 8.—"The reorganization of the Senate by the Democrats on the fourth of March is assured," said Senator Hoke Smith, of Georgia, today in summing up the status of the Senate as a result of the election.

Senator Smith was among those of the Democratic Senators to return to Washington and he spoke with assurance due largely to his familiarity with the situation on account of his connection with the Senatorial branch of the campaign work. He spent a while with Senator Reed, of Missouri, in looking after the Legislatures in the various States.

"We have 30 Democrats who hold over and five who already have been elected, making 35," said the Senator. "We have Democrats from Georgia, Texas, Kansas, Arkansas, Montana, Oklahoma, North Carolina, South Carolina, and two from Colorado who have been elected in the primaries. The Democrats undoubtedly have carried the Legislatures of New Jersey and Delaware, which insures Democratic Senators from each of those States. Advices from Nevada and Oregon clearly indicate the election of Democratic candidates for the Senate. This would give 49 Democrats, or a positive majority of the Senate."

Mr. Smith was inclined to make additional claims upon States which are considered doubtful. He said that according to his advices the Democrats will have a majority of the Legislature of Tennessee, which would insure a Democratic Senator safe from that State."

"We can rely safely on 50 Democrats in the next Senate," he declared.

Senator Smith's summary of Democratic control in the Senate is substantially in accord with the general view taken at the Senate wing of the capitol. In other quarters an impartial survey of the returns gives totals up to the present time, as follows:

Democrats, 48; Republicans, 41; doubtful, 7. Total membership, 96.

The seven seats still classed as doubtful are two from Illinois and one each from Michigan, Oregon, South Dakota, Tennessee and Wyoming.

Without any of these seven doubtful seats, the present assured Democratic strength of 48 is half of the total membership and is sufficient, with the vote of Vice President Marshall on a tie, to control the Senate.

The tests as to the political affiliation of the Progressives in the Senate probably will come soon after the convening of Congress on the first Monday in December.

"If I could have my way," said Senator Oliver, of Pennsylvania, one of the foremost standpatters, "I would determine the question at the earliest moment. With the Vice President no longer with us, it will become imperative to elect a president pro tempore of the Senate as soon as we convene. As it is generally known the Progressives refused to support Senator Gallinger for president pro tem. of the last session.

"I would call another caucus to name a candidate for this office and would make his support a test of party loyalty on the part of Senators claiming to be Republican."

If the course suggested by Mr. Oliver should be pursued, it might result in the earfly reconciliation of a third party in the Senate. It is claimed, however, by Senator Gallinger's friends, that the Progressive opposition to him had largely died away before the close of the last session.

The Democratic Senators are most anxious to obtain such a majority of their own membership in the Senate, so as to entirely avoid the necessity of any dependence upon Progressives after March 4th.

"WETS" PLANNING TO FIGHT

Claim West Virginia Prohibition Amendment Is Unconstitutional

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 7.—Although the prohibition amendment, providing for Statewide prohitition and making the manufacture of intoxicants unlawful, was ratified by a big majority in Tuesday's election, the State may not become "dry" after all.

The amendment does not become effective until July 1st, 1914, and because of this fact the "wets" declared it is not constitutional, and they will fight their contention in the Supreme Court of the State.

Section 2 of Article 14, of the State Constitution, relating to amendments, says: "Amendments shall be in force from the time of ratification as a part of the Constitution of the State." The opponents of the amendment claim this section of the Constitution make the amendment just ratified at the polls unconstitutional.

LITTLE LEGISLATION LIKELY

Congressmen Prepared for Short Session, But No Important Measures Are Expected to Be Passed By Old Congress

Washington, D. C., Nov. 8.—Speaker Champ Clark is expected to reach Washington within the next 10 days or two weeks, in time to take up the details of legislation in the short session of Congress which will begin three weeks from next Monday. Chairman Underwood, of the House Committee on Ways and Means, is not expected until toward the end of the month.

Comparatively little legislation beyond the passage of the usual appropriation bills is expected to be enacted during the short session. The majority of the members of the House Committee on Appropriations are now on the way to Panama, under the leadership of Chairman Fitzgerald, and the clerks of the committee are busily engaged upon the framework of the various appropriation measures.

Most of the estimates from the executive departments have been received and many of the bills are well underway. The legislative, executive and judicial and the District of Columbia bills will be in shape for committee work when Congress meets and these probably will be the first of the supply measures to be presented to the House. It is believed the appropriation for the canal, which will be made by the next session, will be the last to be required for the construction of that work.

Up to date the appropriations have aggregated $322,541,468 and as the limit was fixed at $375,200,900 about $53,000,000 still will be required to complete the work, providing the full amount of the estimate becomes necessary. In addition further appropriation must be made for the continuation of the work on the canal fortifications, for which less than $6,000,000 out of the requisite $14,000,000 has been provided.

The calendars of the two houses contain a number of general measures left over from the last session, but as a rule Democratic Senators and members show a disinclination to enter upon much legislation in view of the early prospects of their complete control of both houses of Congress as well as the Presidency.

EXTRA SESSION FAVORED

Democratic Congressmen Want Eearly Action on Tariff

(Special to Baltimore Sun).

Washington, Nov. 7.—Democratic Congressmen now arriving in Washington are in favor of an extra session of Congress next Spring to revise the tariff schedules downward.

Representatives John N. Garner and William R. Smith, of Texas, arrived here today, and both announced positively for the extra session.

The declaration of Oscar W. Underwood, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, has strengthened the extra session sentiment, and opinion is growing in Washington that Congress will be called to meet some time next Spring after President-elect Wilson takes up his duties at the White House.

The Bryan following in Congress stands with Chairman Underwood in his declaration for an early reform of the tariff. One of Mr. Bryan's closest friends in the House reached Washington today and said the extra session should be called. This man is also close to Governor Wilson and said he did not care to be quoted by the press until he has talked with the President-elect.

The fact that Mr. Underwood has announced for an extra session programme creates the belief in Washington that it is practically settled one will be called. It is declared that Governor Wilson and Mr. Underwood understand each other on the tariff, and the latter would have hardly given out his statements had he not known the wishes of the man who is to take up the leadership of the Democratic party in the White House next March.

"GUNMEN" ON TRIAL.

Five Jurors Chosen for Trial of Alleged Actual Slayers.

New York, Nov. 8.—Five jurors for the trial of the four "gunmen" accused of the actual killing of Herman Rosenthal the gambler, had been chosen when the opening day's session of the trial was adjourned early this ening.

The four prisoners—"Dago Frank", "Whitey Lewis," "Lefty Louie", and "Gyp the Blood"—were summoned before Justice Goff in the middle of the afternoon. Dressed faultlessly, clean shaven and holding their heads high, they walked briskly to their places.

The men had elected to be tried together, and Justice Goff, finding no objection from either side to this plan, the jury wheel was spun. The work was conducted expeditiously, and notwithstanding that numbers of talesmen were excused or challenged, the five selections had been made and accepted when court adjourned.

It is believed the jury will be complete by noon recess tomorrow. In connection with the start of the trial today there were renewed but unconfirmed reports that the four prisoners had requested the district attorney to allow them to escape a possible death penalty by pleading to second degree murder.

BULL MOOSE GETS CALIFORNIA VOTE

Corrected Returns From All the State Give T. R. Small Plurality.

ELECTORAL VOTE DIVIDED?

One of the Progressive Electors Was Scratched and May Lose Out in The Official Canvass—Democratic Contest

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 8.—Tabulation of corrected returns from virtually all of the State's county seats show that in California Roosevelt has a plurality of the popular vote over Wilson that returns from the 79 remote precincts still unreported are not likely to overturn. The latest figures give Roosevelt 281,369, Wilson 280,618; Roosevelt's plurality 751.

It is likely that the vote of many of the missing precincts will not be known until the official canvass is made.

Not all of the Roosevelt electors may have won. The name of Lieutenant Governor Albert J. Wallace, which headed the Roosevelt electoral ticket, was scratched by many voters, presumably because of his course in commuting the death sentence of murderers while acting Governor.

In many instances, it is stated, Wallace's name was actually pencilled off the ballots.

Attorney General Webb rendered an opinion that such ballots were thereby invalidated.

Acting upon this opinion the Democratic managers have announced that if the final returns leave Roosevelt still in the lead they will challenge the vote of Los Angeles county, where the Progressives rolled up their heaviest plurality and where Wallace ran behind the other Roosevelt electors.

Wilson and Roosevelt alternated in the lead early in the day when the distant mountain precincts began to straggle in. By four P. M. Mr. Roosevelt's margin had been increased to nearly 1,000 and it became almost certain that the unreported precincts in counties carried by the Democratic ticket would not overcome this lead.

The final disposition of California's 13 electoral votes may be decided by the courts. Democratic managers in the excitement of the determination to challenge the Los Angeles county vote, in the event of a Roosevelt victory, said their action would be based not only on the alleged counting of Progressive ballots invalidated by pencil scratches, but on alleged errors and irregularities of Republican judges of election in excluding valid Democratic votes. James D. Phelan and Rudolph Spreckles today authorized the Democratic State Committee to offer a reward of $5,000 to any one supplying evidence leading to the conviction of any person on a charge of perpetrating election frauds. According to the terms of the offer, this reward will be paid for each conviction.

The wide discrepancy in the complete returns from Los Angeles county are compared with earlier returns—a charge that wiped out an apparent lead of 6,000 votes for Wilson in the State—was due in part to a switch in the method of tallying the popular vote. At the outset the record was made up from the vote cast for the head of each electoral ticket. Later when it became apparent that many Progressives had not voted for Wallace, the first Roosevelt elector, Progressive leaders demanded of the county clerk a recount, in which a vote cast for any elector in the Progressive column was tallied as a vote for Roosevelt.

Mix-up In Michigan

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 8.—Complete returns from 58 of the 83 counties in Michigan indicate that although Roosevelt and Governor-elect Ferris, Democrat, swept the State, the latter will have a Republican Lieutenant Governor. It is probable also the remainder of the State ticket will be Republican. Complete returns cannot be secured before the official canvass at Lansing Tuesday. With but three counties unreported the equal suffrage amendment's passage was favored by a 4,700 majority.

Idaho is Doubtful.

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 8.—Idaho is again in the doubtful list on its Presidential vote as between Taft and Wilson. The possibility of a divided electoral vote is recognized since the vote for electors on the same ticket varies. Newspaper tabulations, the only figures now available, are radically different. One gives Taft about 500, the other Wilson about 500 plurality. The official canvass, it appears, will be required to settle the question.

Wilson Wins in Iowa.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 8.—The lead of Governor Wilson over Col. Roosevelt was increased during the day to 21,454, when complete returns from 95 counties were received. After it seemed E. G. Dun, Democrat, had been elected, belated figures late this afternoon seemed to give George W. Clarke, Republican, the victory b ya plurality of 2,278.

Leaders of both parties are claiming the plurality and both sides declare many of the returns thus far received are incorrect.

Democratic Congressman.

San Francisco, Nov. 8—Late returns

tonight reversed a Progressive plurality in the 11th Congressional district, and gave the victory to a Democrat, increasing the Democratic representation from California to three and reducing the Progressive to four. William Kentner, Democrat, is shown to have defeated Samuel C. Evans, Progressive.

Both Claim Kansas.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 8.—While both the Republicans and Democrats still were claiming victory tonight in the Gubernatorial election in Kansas, revised unofficial returns from all the counties in Kansas, exclusive of the mail vote, showed conclusively that the official count would be necessary to determine the contest, Arthur Capper, the Republican candidate, was leading by a margin of only a hundred votes.

Wilson's Plurality 16,107

Chicago, Nov. 8.—The unofficial count of the total vote for President in Illinois, completed today shows that Wilson obtained 407,470, Roosevelt 391,365 and Taft 256,625. Wilson's plurality was 16,105, but he lacks 180,026 of a majority. The estimated vote for Debs was 85,000 and for Chafin 35,000. The total vote was about 1,175,000, almost the same as in 1908 when Taft polled 629,929 and Bryan 450,795.

Complete returns from all precincts in Illinois gave Woodrow Wilson a plurality of 16,107 over Roosevelt.

T. R. Leading In California

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 8.—Correct figures from Santa Clara county showed that 434 votes had been credited to Wilson in last night's total by mistake. With this corrected Roosevelt this afternoon appeared to have a lead of 359 votes in the State.

No Arrangements Soon.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 8.—President-elect Woodrow Wilson intends to follow out his "listening policy" for several weeks before making any announcements of important matters of State.

The President-elect said tonight he had decided to go away next week on a vacation of three or four weeks, during which time he would be out of reach of political callers. The place where he will go will be announced later. It is probable he will make known very little about the policy of his future administration before January 1st.

Governor Wilson said he was in need of rest and intended to get himself in good physical condition for the session of the New Jersey Legislature beginning the first of the year, when he will carry the two-fold burden of executive programme for the State and the preliminary arrangements for his Presidential administration. An incident of the day at the Wilson home was the parting of the President-elect with Capt. "Bill" McDonald, Texas Ranger and bodyguard of the last few weeks.

"I formed an affectionate regard for him," said the President-elect. "He has a combination of shrewd sense and simplicity of character that is very rare these days."

The President-elect took a seven-mile walk again today around the Princeton battlefield of revolutionary days.

Governor Wilson stopped for a few minutes to talk with Mrs. Anna Ricketts, 85 years old, his next door neighbor. "Be merciful," was the appeal of the aged woman. "To whom?" he asked. "To all but rascals," she answered.

Governor Wilson likes to chat with Mrs. Ricketts because, though far advanced in years, he said she retains a remarkable viewpoint on politics and current affairs.

Several telegrams came today, one of them from Eugene Chafin, the Prohibition candidate for the Presidency. He wired his congratulations and added: "I move we make it unanimous."

John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia, also sent his respects.

Flagged Train With Shirt.

Tearing his shirt from his back an Ohio man flagged a train and saved it from a wreck, but H. T. Alston, Raleigh, N. C., once prevented a wreck with Electric Bitters. "I was in a terrible plight when I began to use them," he writes, "my stomach, head, back and kidneys were all badly affected and my liver was in bad condition, but four bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." A trial will convince you of their matchless merit for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Price 50 cents at R. R. Bellamy.

Whether you smoke it in a jimmy pipe or as a cigarette.

Take it from any angle, Prince Albert simply measures right up to every idea of what a smoke should be. Pack in your old jimmy and it opens up a new delight in pipe smoking. Roll up a cigarette and you have the finest paper-coated smoke ever compounded. Burns evenly, with none of that die-out-between-whiffs habit. And doesn't burn up in flash like dried-out, chaff-brand tobaccos. P. A. is long burning and it's handy for cigarette smokers because it is easily handled on a windy day.

Now, Mr. Man—you who think you can't smoke a pipe—give P. A. the third degree in YOUR jimmy pipe. You'll find all its promises right in bloom.

AFFAIRS AT STATE CAPITAL

Supreme Court Opinions—Question of Women in Tax Districts—Other Raleigh News Notes of Interest.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 8.—The North Carolina Supreme Court delivered opinions in ten apeals this weekly delivery day. The decisions follow: Bailey vs. Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Co., Pitt county, action dismissed; Harris vs. Bennett, Nash, reversed; Gill vs. Commissioners, Wake, reversed; Fleming vs. Norfolk Southern Railroad, Wake, no error; State vs. Snipes, Guilford, affirmed; Baynes vs. Farris, Guilford, no error; Brewer vs. Manufacturing Co., Guilford, affirmed; Allred vs. Kirkman, Randolph, no error; Penn vs. Insurance Co., Rockingham, petition to re-hear dismissed, former judgment sustained; State vs. Charles, Forsyth, appeal dismissed for failure to print the record.

In reversing the lower court in Gill vs. Commissioners, from Wake, the court holds that women freeholders in a locality need not be included in getting 25 per cent. of the freeholders for the purpose of calling an election for special tax and that the law contemplates "freehold voters." The case is that from Wake Forest township in which a special tax for schools was voted and the validity of the election attacked on the ground that the 25 per cent. of freeholders petitioning for the election did not include the women property holders and that they must be counted in ascertaining the 25 per cent. of petitioning freeholders. Justice Platt Walker wrote the opinion with Justices Hoke and Allen concurring. On the other hand, Chief Justice Walter Clark and Justice Brown dissent.

Fleming vs. Norfolk Southern from Wake is a suit for damages in which George B. Fleming, engineer injured in an accident here, gets $10,000 damages.

State vs. W. P. Snipes, from Greensboro, is a case in which the aldermen refused a license for a restaurant to the plaintiff; he persistsed in business without license and was fined $100 and appealed. The fine is sustained.

Superintendent R. G. Kiger, superintendent of Rowan county public schools reports to the State Department of Education a special school tax of 25 cents on property and 75 cents on polls voted in East Spencer with only three votes in opposition. He also applies for rural school libraries.

Superintendent Hutchins, of the Grenesboro Division of the Southern Railway Co., submitted to the Corporation Commission today for approval plans for a handsome new passenger station for Chapel Hill. It is to cost about $7,500. Mr. Hutchins says the work on the new station at University Station, plans for which were approved some time ago, will begin very soon now and both will be pushed along together as far as possible.

Charters are issued for the Pink Hill Tobacco Warehouse Co., of Pink Hill, Lenoir county, capital $7,500 by Geo. Turner, Ivey B. Smith and others, and the Hart Bros. Co., of Wadesboro, capital $50,000 authorized and $6,000 subscribed by W. T. Hart and W. H. Belk, Charlotte, and J. E. Hart and others of Wadesboro.

Col. W. P. Wood, State Auditor, says his county of Randolph is claiming the banner vote for Simmons in the Senatorial primary, that county's majority for Simmons being 1,834 and the total vote 2,700.

Members of the Association of Southern Agricultural Workers had a busy day with the reading of special papers in the routine programme and discussions in meetings of the different sections. This afternoon the members went for an automobile ride that included the principal points of interest hereabouts. This evening at 6 o'clock there was a special dinner in their honor at the Yarborough. The association will elect officers and round up the work of the session today.

The second day of the Association of Southern Agricultural Workers being held here is characterized by a notable programme. In the general session there was special consideration of the question of "The Campaign for the Eradication of Hog Cholera in the South." Dr. C. A. Cary, of Alabama, urged the necessity of uniform laws for controlling cholera epidemic. Dr. R. H. Roths, of Georgia, outlined the serum treatment. Dr. George White, of Tennessee, discussed the aid that railroads can give in the work of eradicating cholera. Dr. G. A. Roberts discussed general preventative measures and told of splendid results secured in North Carolina through the serum treatment provided ed by the State Department of Agriculture. Dr. A. D. Melvin enumerated uniform action that is necessary for effective results in efforts of eradication. The sections of commissioners of agriculture, section of animal industry and live stock problems and the section of field crops and fertilizers are holding separate sessions at stated intervals for the discussion and study of special problems in their divisions of agricultural work.

An order has been agreed upon for the Superior Court here to issue in the receivership suit against the Wake Water Co., that supplies Raleigh's water service. It will empower the receivers to cut off all delinquents in water rents and provide for later issuance of receiver's certificates for the enlargement of the plant. Numbers of citizens are refusing to pay for the water supplied a few weeks ago that was so muddy and generally objectionable as well as short in supply.

London, Nov. 8.—The Lord Chamberlain today withdrew the prohibition of the censor of plays to the production of Max Rheinhardt's wordless play, "A Venetian Night," and granted a license for it.

ELECTION DAY AFFRAY

One Man Severely Slashed by Another—Other Kinston News Notes

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Nov. 8.—News reaches this city of a serious affray which occurred at the polling place at Prescott, a rural community in Duplin county four or five miles from the Lenoir line, on election night, in which Oscar Stroud was severely cut and Marshall Grady slightly hurt. Both were drinking. It is said that the altercation which led up to the fight was not connected with the election, but was over a private matter. Knives were drawn and Grady cut Stroud terribly with a single slash of his weapon. The knife entered on the side of the head, came down the side of his face, across the throat, down the breast and stomach and continued to the thigh, where the gash ended. The wounded man bled profusely, and was considered in a precarious condition, but it is believed now that he will recover. Grady was not seriously cut, but is said to have several minor wounds. Oscar Stroud is the son of one of the wealthiest farmers in Duplin county, and Grady is of a very prominent family. Both are young men.

The car shortage which has existed on the Norfolk Southern system, as well as on every other railroad in the East recently, is declared to be less serious today than at any time since the shortage began. Shipments of cotton, tobacco and lumber are being sent out more easily from this point, and conditions are exepected to be nearly normal in a week or ten days. Merchandise shipments have not been hindered, a sufficient number of cars having been reserved for handling it. At times during the past month only about half enough rolling stock has been at hand to properly serve the freight traffic from Kinston. The shortage was due to the heavy grain and live stock shipments in the West.

Eddie Walker, a 14-year-old boy, died as the result of internal injuries received from a fall from a bicycle two weeks previously. Walker was riding along a railroad track when he received the hurt which resulted in his death, striking a tie or other object in his fall. He was supposed to be well on the way to recovery, and was in the brightest condition since receiving the injury, when a hemorrhage occurred which the physicians could not control. The lad was prominently connected, and was well-known in the city.

All of the officers of the Kinston Chamber of Commerce were re-elected at the annual election by the board of directors of the body. Those returned are: C. Felix Harvey, president; J. Fred Taylor, first vice president; J. H. Canady, second vice president, and F. I. Sutton, secretary and treasurer. At the meeting the principal matter discussed were the location of important new industries, more adequate depot facilities, plans to boost good roads and strengthen the already live sentiment on this subject in Lenoir county, and the extension of the Kinston-Carolina Railroad and better Pullman service over the Norfolk Southern.

E. F. Hicks, an aged farmer of Calypso, was badly hurt when he fell from a wagon which he was driving from his farm near there. The wagon, drawn by two horses and loaded with hay, passed over his left side. Mr. Hicks is a Confederate veteran, and owing to his advanced age he may be confined for some time. He sustained several broken ribs.

TO MEET IN WHITEVILLE.

Baptist Missionary Institute Next Week—Other News Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., Nov. 8.—The Baptist Woman's Missionary Institute of the Wilmington District will meet here in the Baptist church Wednesday of next week for a two days' session. There will be delegates in attendance from all the missionary societies in Eastern Carolina, and a very interesting and profitable meeting is expected. Miss Fanny Heck, of Raleigh, president of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Southern Baptist Convention, will be present and will make several addresses. Mrs. David J. Lewis, chairman of the Hospitality Committee, is receiving letters daily from delegates who will attend, and the indications are that there will be a large attendance.

Mr. E. S. Lewis has recently completed the remodeling and enlarging of his residence on Main street.

Miss Lena Stultz, who recently resigned her position as teacher in the graded school on account of ill health, is now in a hospital at Columbia, S. C. She expects to be able to return to her home at Rock Hill, S. C., at an early date. Her place in the school has been taken by Mrs. Manly Toon, who is an experienced teacher, having before her marriage taught for several years in the Wilmington High School.

WELL MERITED PROTEST.

Reckless Driving on Streets Should be Stoped at Once.

Editor Star:—In the exercise of my rights and duty as a citizen of Wilmington I respectfully protest against two evils which if not checked by the police may at any moment cause sudden and violent death or painful injury to pedestrians on our streets. I allude to the reckless bicycle rider and the speeding automobilist or motor truck chauffeur.

I have observed the running down of two prominent citizens by careless bicyclists and the narrow escape of many persons crossing Front street from instant death by rapid, racing motor cars. A policeman is stationed at the intersection of Front and Princess streets. Another is badly needed nearer the railroad station.

G. T. J.

Washington, Nov. 8.—Two of President Taft's most valued advisers in the campaign, Chairman Hilles, of the Republican National Committee, and Senator Crane, of Massachusetts, were guests at dinner tonight at the White House. The President's plan for the continued active existence of the party and the possible successor on the Republican ticket, to the late Vice President Sherman, were discussed.

Store and Dwelling at Battle Ground Destroyed Yesterday

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 8.—The store building and stock of merchandise of Will Ingold, located on the Battle Ground outside of the city, was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon shortly after 1 o'clock. The origin of the fire is a mystery since Mr. Ingold had been absent from the building less than 10 minutes when the fire was discovered and no fire having been in the store during the day. There was only $75 insurance on the building while Mr. Ingold carried no isurance at all on his stock of goods. The total loss will probably not exceed $1,000.

Saturday, November 9, 1912.

Well, we won with Wilson.

Lincoln's reputation was vindicated by Tuesday's election.

In order to get the best results take a sack and go after them yourself.

The bashibazouks in politics seem to have been defeated everywhere.

A political manager's duty is to see sights and claim everything in sight.

By the way, didn't the tariff board walk the plank when the cyclone struck it?

It is said that eating beef will make people tall. However, most of us are too short to indulge in enough beef to make us tall.

A man at Reading, Pa., was fined $6.84 for kissing a girl against her will. Why should he have been let off at a bargain counter price?

Those who get rich quick are those who run the game. Those who get poor are those who get in the other fellow's get-rich-quick game.

The director of the Boston Symphony Orchestra is Dr. Karl Muck. He has made a name for himself and need not have any fear of the muckrakers.

A Chicago man hit his wife because she persisted in feeding him on hash. She had him put in jail and he says he won't mind it so long as the jailer does not include hash in his diet.

The Hon. Hi Johnson's own father, Mr. Grove Johnson, of California, voted for Wilson and Marshall against Roosevelt and Johnson. Your Uncle Grove raised that boy, so there!

Of course, the Hon. Champ Clark was re-elected, and so was the Hon. Oscar Underwood. They were needed by the whole country and it is under obligations to Missouri and Alabama.

President Taft has always been such a nice kind of President that the regret of the campaign is that he did not insurge along with the people. He knows too late that in a sea of troubles the tariff board could not be depended upon to keep him afloat.

Uncle Joe Cannon went along with the landslide, but nobody will rejoice to see the rugged old warrior biting the dust. He can blame the Bull Moose for dividing the party and making his defeat possible at the hands of a Democracy in his Illinois district.

It is announced that Governor Hadley, of Missouri, will decline to be named on the Taft ticket as candidate for Vice President to succeed the late Vice President Sherman, who was President Taft's running mate. This shows that Hadley is not one of those men who want something for nothing.

According to a census bureau report covering the cotton year ended August 31st, 1912, all the cotton countries of the world produced 22,297,000 bales, and the world's consumption of cotton was 20,777,000 bales. The bureau estimates the active cotton consuming spindles of the world at 140,954,000. The South continues to produce about two-thirds of the world's cotton.

For a while at least, we may not live cheaper, but we can live easier under Woodrow Wilson. We won't have near so much dread of the partnership between the predatory interests and the Republican party. The greatest satisfaction will be derived from the consolation that the government will be administered for the people instead of being used as a means of taxing all the people for the benefit of a group of millionaires.

WILSON ON TARIFF REVISION.

The campaign is over and Woodrow Wilson has been elected President. He will have a tremendous if not unwieldy Democratic majority in the House to back him, and evidently the Democrats will have a working majority in the Senate. While the election is over, the tariff still looms up as an open question and in four months it will come before a new Congress and a new President.

President Taft remarked on the day after Tuesday's landslide that the election of Wilson "means an early change in the economic policy of the government in reference to the tariff." He added: "If this change can be made without halting prosperity, I sincerely hope it may be." That is precisely what the Baltimore platform has promised the country—a change in the tariff in the interest of the people, but a gradual reduction to a revenue basis so as not to disturb the industrial system of the country. That is as sane a proposition as can be, but during the campaign, Governor Wilson referred to this subject of tariff revision in this way:

"There is much to be done, and it must be done in a right spirit and in the right way, or it will deepen our troubles, not relieve them. The tariff question must be solved in the interest of those who work and spend and plan and struggle, those who are finding a foothold and working out a career, those who touch the sources of strength and are quick with the pulse of a common life, for the sake of 'the power that tills the fields and builds the cities,' and not for the sake of special groups of men who dominate and control their fellows and regard the toil of millions of men merely as an opportunity of their established advantage. It must be handled very prudently, so that no honest toil may be interrupted, no honorable or useful enterprise disturbed; must be dealt with by slow stages of well-considered change—change whose object shall be to restore and broaden opportunity, and destroy nothing but special privilege and unwholesome control. Those who handle it, therefore, must be men who understand the general interest and have devoted themselves to serving it without fear or favor."

Governor Wilson has said more things and said them better than any Presidential candidate in our recollection. The above, in brief, is a reassuring view from the next President, and in that plan he will have both the North Carolina Senators with him. They took precisely that view and acted along that line in their votes on the tariff when the Payne-Aldrich bill was under consideration. They did so at the risk of being accused of being out of line with their party, but they were Democrats with a clear idea of the equity of the tariff question. It must be understood that any tariff revision or a tariff for revenue will have to be adopted with a view to distributing its burdens or benefits in the different States. No Senator or Representative is a protectionist because he insists upon equity for his State, or a class of people in his State.

The Payne-Aldrich bill purposely aimed to confer benefits and special privileges and it was terribly discriminating in its effect. The North Carolina delegation in Congress did their duty in preventing that as far as possible, and it was no violation of principle for them to secure equity in any Republican tariff bill that should be passed. That was not only wise, but it was a statesmanlike way of handling the tariff question. It was not then like it will be under Wilson's administration when the tariff question will be adjusted so as "to restore and broaden opportunity, and destroy nothing but special privilege and unwholesome control." The Manufacturers' Record heartily approves Governor Wilson's position on the tariff and declares that there will be no danger in the kind of tariff revision which he proposes. The Record says:

"The spirit that must animate the Congress in dealing with details must be a determination to consider fundamental economic laws and to obtain the knowledge of the results and for whom, of the working out of countervailing policies between 1897 and 1909, and of the amount of duties on so-called 'raw materials' for manufacturing that have figured in drawbacks and of the interests or individuals to whom the drawbacks have been paid. In addition, there must be discovered the intimate relations between the so-called free list and the maximum and minimum provisions of the Payne-Aldrich tariff. Full information on these points will go straight to the seat of the abuses that have characteriezd the framing of recent tariff laws and the administration of them—abuses which can be suppressed without affecting, except favorably, honest toil and honorable and useful enterprises of all kinds. Through all revision should prevail the simple rule which the Manufacturers' Record has iterated:

"If raw materials for manufacturing are admitted to this country free of duty, or if the duties upon such materials are reduced, all articles into which such materials enter should be admitted free of duty, or the duties upon them should be reduced in proportion to the reduction of the duties upon the raw materials. The party which shall permit the honesty and simplicity of that rule to dominate it in handling the tariff question will remove the question from the domain of party politics, and the men of that party responsible for the legislation will go down in history as statesmen. It is the chance for Southern men to immortalize themselves. They must put into effect Woodrow Wilson's sane and clear utterance, under which there should be no demoralization of the material interests of the country."

The above is the view of a student of political economy, such as Editor Edmonds has been for a quarter of a century. He has stated the question plainly and he says exactly what Governor Wilson meant to say. It must be remembered that the free list can both discriminate against and burden some classes of industries and toilers, and that the free list can be as much in favor of special privilege as can be a high tariff itself. It requires experience and caution to know where to draw the line.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE GROWS

Four more States voted favorably on woman suffrage in last Tuesday's election. These were Michigan, Kansas, Oregon and Arizona, where the voters adopted constitutional amendments giving the ballot to women. This, we believe, now makes eleven woman suffrage States, and the women in all of them will take part in State and Congressional elections two years from now. The States in which women can vote have seventy electoral votes, so that in the next Presidential election it may be possible for women to hold the balance of power in the election of a President.

Of course, President-elect Wilson will be a candidate to succeed himself, and it is useless to say that he will feel almost like putting one of his lady friends in the cabinet. At any rate, he can have a side-table cabinet, although it is safe to say that the Democratic government will be conducted in a way that will meet the approval of the women of the United States—especially those who vote. Fancy what a flutter there was among the woman suffragists in New York when the election news came in by wire that they had won four more States for "the cause." It is said the National headquarters of the suffragettes in New York were crowded with women and they watched the election with keen interest. They received telegraphic returns and were jubilant over the progress made in the movement to secure equal rights for women. Dr. Anna Shaw received excited women friends at headquarters and she said to the newspaper men:

"It is the beginning of the end. It isn't the mere winning of four States. It means that the complete victory is at hand. Within ten years every State in the Union will admit its women to citizenship, and the United States will really be a republic. Why, this very Winter we will surely carry Nevada, for the bill has passed the Legislature once already, and in six more States the question will be submitted to the people next year. We'll get New York in 1915, and the rest will be easy."

Four more States for woman suffrage, all in a lump! Mrs. August Belmont and other leaders were at headquarters to enjoy the news. It must be admitted that the movement for equal rights for women is formidable. Dr. Shaw may be right that women will vote in every State in the Union in ten years, and certainly it seems reasonable to say that they will be full-fledged citizens in all the States in twenty years. It will all depend upon whether woman suffrage turns out to be advantageous and satisfactory to the women of the States in which they now vote. It involves social as well as political questions and it depends upon its effect upon society and upon civic problems whether woman suffrage will grow or not.

How about it, though if woman suffrage should prove undesirable in those States which are trying it? How could the women citizens be disfranchised? How could a right be taken away from women? In fact, the woman suffragists wonder how a right can be withheld from them. We believe that when the women of any State demand the right to vote they will have the right conferred. It is up to them, for men will not go out of their way to meet that question. They will meet it when the question is brought face to face with them.

It strikes us as inconsistent for the women of some States to vote while the right is denied in others, or at least withheld. It discriminates against the women and certainly is a discrimination against other States. It gives greater power to those States which double their qualified voters when their women can vote as well as their men. In North Carolina, for instance, woman suffrage would double the voting strength of the State. At present those States which have woman suffrage have the advantage of us in the size of their popular vote. We are pretty sure we will have to face this question in North Carolina before ten years roll around. In fact, the Hon. Walter Clark, in a way, brought us face to face with it in his campaign in the interest of his candidacy for the United States Senate. One of the planks of his personal platform declared for woman suffrage. It was not taken seriously in this campaign, but it was the opening wedge.

THE VOTE AGAINST THIRD TERMISM

Colonel Roosevelt was quick to acknowledge the inevitable on Tuesday night when the election returns told of the Democratic landslide. He was game and immediately telegraphed his congratulations to Governor Wilson. He also issued a brief statement in which he said: "The American people by a great plurality, have decided in favor of Mr. Wilson and the Democratic party. Like all good citizens, I accept the result with entire good humor and contentment."

The fact is, the colonel won a victory in a way himself, for he sucured the defeat of President Taft. However, the combined popular vote of Roosevelt and Taft was 1,500,000 greater than that cast for Wilson, showing that the majority of voters still oppose the Democratic party. Nevertheless, if we did together the Democratic and Republican votes, it will be seen that a majority voted against a third term.

We stand at Armageddon and view the landscape o'er, The field is strewn with wreckage as it never was before; The elephant and moose are numbered 'mong the slain, And the Third Termer's dead as Hector ne'er to rise again. Let the people sing a pean for the battle they have won, And stand by Woodrow Wilson, the Republic's mighty son; He'll sail the ship of State and will steer for Uncle Sam, And keep all the sailors straight with commanding epigram.

It seems that Congressman Nicholas Longworth, Roosevelt's son-in-law, has been beaten for Congress in Ohio by a Democrat named Bowdle. This is one time that Bowdle got away with boodle.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The local option platform, having failed to answer any useful purpose, will perhaps be dropped by the Republicans.—Durham Herald.

Why should the donkey bear the burden of winning a campaign, and then be supplanted by the rooster in the hour of triumph? But it is always thus.—Charleston Post.

The people have shown what they think of a third term. The precedent set in the early days of the Republic was a wise one, and third-termer candidates had best take notice.—Raleigh News and Observer.

It is estimated that 70 per cent. of the tobacco crop of eastern North Carolina has been marketed, and at an average of slightly more than $20 per 100, as against $14.50 for the crop of 1911 and $11.50 for that of 1910.—Petersburg Index-Appeal.

The boy winning in the Early County corn contest turned out 233 1-4 bushels on his test acre. The same boy won the prize last year with 189 bushels. The Americus Times contends that this boy ought never quit the farm for the city; he has found his calling.—Augusta Chronicle.

At least it must be admitted that Senator Dixon, National chairman of the Bull Moose party and general manager, can sniff a landslide as far as the best of them. He announced two days before the election, "I smell a landslide." There's nothing wrong with the chairman's olfactory equipment.—Columbia State.

And the next Governor of North Carolina is Hon. Locke Craig, of Asheville. His majority runs over 50,000. He wan over two opponents with a sweeping victory. The general Democratic majority was piled up and a Democratic Legislature has been chosen. It is a good day, indeed, in North Carolina. No man in North Carolina has labored more faithfully for the party than has Mr. Craig. He has been in the thickest of all the battles, and his blows have had powerful effect. He will make a great and useful Governor and we hail his administration with delight.—Charlotte News.

And the hare is outrun by the snail;

"After giving her only two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound she is now enjoying the best of health. I cannot praise your Compound too highly. I want every good mother to read what your medicine has done for my child."—Mrs. RICHARD N. DUNHAM, 311 Exchange St., Rochester, N.Y.

Stoutsville, Ohio.—"I suffered from headaches, backache and was very irregular. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. I cannot express my thanks for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I had taken other medicines but did not find relief."—Miss CORA B. Basketball Contests at Boys' Brigade Contained Many Surprises—Many Spectators Watched Exciting Games

Another series in the basketball race for the championship was played at the Boys' Brigade armory last night and every game was a surprise in some particular The greatest surprise, however, was the splendid game put up by the Eagles against Company B, whom they almost defeated. Another surprise was the strength shown by Company A against the Y. M. C. A. Seniors, while the surprise in the game between the Cardinals and the Y. M. C. A. Juniors was the large score the Juniors were able to pile up against their rivals, this being mainly due to the fact that the Cardinals, while having many splendid opportunities to score, were not able to more than hit the rim when goals should have been scored.

The feeling of rivalry between the teams was very keen and resulted in a display of temper which did no damage but which is most unsportsmanlike to say the least. However, when the speed at which all the men are moving the close personal contact into which they are constantly thrown is considered the wonder is that more ill will, due to mistaken notions of the intention of an opponent, is not exhibited. However, afeer the game and a cool bath all became happy again and laughed about their show of temper and expressed regret at actions which were the result of heat and hasty judgment.

The attendance of spectators was very large, every nook and corner where one could possibly see the game was occupied and the excitement and enthusiasm ran over at all stages of the games, some rooting for one team and others doing their best to help their favorites by the amount of noise they could make and shouting encouragement to their friends but all were happy enough, of course, some of them were dissappointed by the defeat of favorites whom they wished to have win.

The first game between the Y. M. C. A. Seniors and Company A was started promptly at 8:15 the ball being tossed up at center by Mr. Chas. Dushan who refereed the games, the Y. M. C. A. Seniors securing the ball on the toss. From this point in the game until the end it was fast and furious, every player doing his utmost to either score or prevent his opponent from doing so and some pretty work was shown by both teams though the tendency to play rough was very apparent by both teams which was the result, largely of the fact that all are big men, full of courage, strong and speedy and determined to win. In the last part of this game Starrett, guard for the Seniors, was unfortunately put out of commission for a few minutes by falling against the lockers in the west end of the gymnasium, but after a few minutes' rest he pluckily returned to the game. Company A had the better of both halves, due to their team work and greater success in caging the ball, they securing five goals from field in the first half while the Seniors could cage but one, though in the second the Seniors secured five while Company A secured but four. Cameron, for Company A, and Strauss for the Seniors, were the fortunate ones to secure goals, Cameron caging the ball four times and Strauss three times. Gerdes secured three, Hanson two. Mercer one and Filyaw one. The final score was Company A 20, Seniors 14.

In the second game between the Cardinals and the Y. M. C. A. Juniors there was much fast playing and good team work by both teams, though the Juniors outclassed their opponents by their better goal-shooting they securing ten field goals and the Cardinals but six. Of these Norman Davis secured two over Chas. Davis who guarded him, C. Shephard over King and Farrar seven over Huhn, his opponent. For the Cardinals Huhn secured three, C. W. Davis one and Irving two. The good guard work of King and Davis wa sresponsible for the small number of goals the Junior forwards were able to throw and they deserve credit for this fea as these forwards are fast, heady and great shots and can be prevented from scoring only by the fastest kind of work on the part of their guards. The final score was Juniors, 27; Cardinals 12.

In the third game the Eagles showed improvement which fairly took their opponents by surprise and by their clever work in all stages of the game came within two points of defeating Company B, which is a feat which no other team in the league has done so far this season. The game was all the Eagles' for the first half in which they played all around Company B, who did not seem to get into their stride until the second half. In the first half J. McCartney was the great surprise of the evening. He has never been known to play at forward, having always been at guard where he was not up to standard, due to his roughness which threatened to disqualify him on several occasions but he started right into this game and began caging the ball and during the half secured three over E. Register, who is rightly considered a crackerjack guard. In this half Houston showed good form and secured two goals and LeGwin one. Register, for Company B, secured two, Bornemann one and Sholar one, the half ending 13 to 8 in favor of the Eagles. Things looked gloomy for Company B in the second half, for the Eagles secured another goal almost immediately after starting which gave them a lead of seven points and it looked as though they would never head their opponents who were going strong. However, they settled down to work and showed courage which must be admired for with this great lead to overcome they took on new life and began scoring, Bornemann securing three pretty goals from difficult positions which put them within one point of tieing the score, but again the Eagles took a lead through the fast work of Houston, who secured three goals in a short time which was partly overcome by two thrown by Branch and Sholar though LeGwin, for the Juniors, secured one and kept the score in doubt until a careful count when it was found that Company B had secured a total of ten field goals and four foul goals and were awarded one point in the first half by the fereree on a foul according to the rules, while the Eagles secured ten field goals and only one point from foul, making the final score, Company B, 23; Eagles, 21. With the addition of Houston and McCartney the Eagles will make things warm for any team in the league now and they will bear watching at all stages of the game. This leaves the standing of the teams as follows: Company B, won 4, lost 0; Juniors, won 3, lost 1; Cardinals, won two, lost two; Company A, won 2, lost one; Seniors, won 1, lost 3; Eagles, won 0, lost four.

OTHER VICTIMS OF SWINDLE?

Reported That Several Citizens Were Losers to the Wire Tappers in New York—Matter of All-Absorbing Interest.

Politics and everything else was sidetracked in Wilmington yesterday and the all-absorbing topic of conversation was the alleged wire tapping swindle in New York City in which at least two and probably more prominent local citizens figured quite prominently, as told in special dispatches to yesterday's Star.

The names of K. C. Sidbury, Esq., and Dr. J. W. Powell were given in yesterday's paper as being the victims of the wire tappers, the former losing $22,000 and the latter $3,000. Reports were in circulation here yesterday that from $100,000 to $150,000 were secured from Wilmington people by the operators of the swindle and that a number of prominent citizens were involved.

The reports were rather vague and indefinite, though they were circulated with such persistency that the general impression was made that $25,000 did not represent all the money the swindlers got from Wilmington nor were Messrs. Sidbury and Powell the only persons who were victimized. The steerer, who is believed to have been J. M. Dowsing, who represented himself as a mining expert, is said to have become rather intimately acquainted with a large number of people here and the belief is pretty general that he succeeded in playing his game on more than two of the number. One of those reported to have been a victim, but whose name has not yet appeared in print in connection with the affair, is quoted as having said yesterday that the swindlers did not get less than $150,000 in Wilmington and section, remarking that a number of persons in surrounding towns bit as freely and as easily as did Wilmington citizens.

Mrs. K. C. Sidbury, in the absence of her husband, who is in New York in connection with the case against the two men arrested there Thursday for the swindle, last night sent to The Star a statement in which she said that the amount said to have been lost by Messrs. Sidbury and Powell was greatly exaggerated for the reason that the money reported to have been lost by them represented a pool and that at least three other prominent Wilmingtonians were involved. She said she thought this statement should be made in justice to Messrs. Sidbury and Powell, whom, she said, she did not think should bear all the responsibility, when others are equally involved.

Mrs. J. W. Powell called up The Star yesterday morning and said that the statement in the special from New York, printed in yesterday's paper, to the effect that her family was intimate with the family of the steerer reported to have been here all the Summer, was incorrect. She says that she never heard of the people before.

A man by the name of J. M. Dowsing and his wife spent practically all the Summer in Wilmington and Wrightsville Sound. When they first came here they lived on South Fifth street, later removing to one of the Hanby cottages on Wrightsville Sound. He posed as a mining expert and approached a man of this city known to own a gold mine in South Carolina, near Chester, with regard to his property. After a few questions the Wilmingtonian found out the visitor did not know much about mining, so passed him up, so to speak. In referring to the matter yesterday the Wilmingtonian said that the visitor was admittedly a sharp fellow and just the sort of person to work the wire tapping game. The visitor confided that he had bribed Senators, Governors, Congressmen, members of the Legislatures and lesser lights and declared that every man had his price. The visitor was an atheist and had a genuine contempt for all religious worship. He was a well educated man, always dressed nicely and was, of course, a smooth talker.

While here Dowsing spent much of his time around local real estate offices. One day he walked into one of the offices and asked the man in the office at the time to change a bill. He shoved out a $1,000 note, which the real estate man, even in these prosperous times with the real estate men, could not change. The visitor said that he had five more just like that one and showed them to the real estate man. Some two weeks later the visitor appeared at the real estate office again and jokingly asked if they had gotten any more change. He then volunteered the information that he had just returned from New York and had four more $1,000 notes. He remarked that he knew of a scheme whereby a man could make plenty of money without work and said that if anyone had $2,000 or $3,000 to invest he would be glad to put them wise. The person addressed said yesterday that he was always "wise" to the visitor in that he had his suspicions and politely declined his offer to put him on easy street for the remainder of his days. Dowsing is said to have made similar remarks in the real estate office a number of times, but from statements made yesterday, none of those in the office put up any money.

It was rumored that one prominent business man went with Dowsing to New York and lost $4,000 in the same manner Messrs. Sidbury and Powell are said to have lost their money. He did not make any public outcry after he realized that he had been a victim of a scheme to swindle him, but came back to Wilmington quietly and waited until Dowsing returned. Arming himself with a pistol and possibly taking a friend with him, the victim is said to have gone to Dowsing's cottage on the sound and with pistol drawn accused Dowsing of causing him to lose the money and demanding that he return to him every cent he had lost. Dowsing is said to have paid over to the Wilmingtonian all the money he had in his house and then went to New York and returned with the balance.

It was also reported that another prominent business man was gotten as far as Washington on his way to New York, where he was to get-rich-quick with Dowsing's aid, but after reaching the Capital City became suspicious and returned to Wilmington. He is said to have been congratulating himself mast heartily yesterday on his escape.

Dowsing and his wife were rathed

Dowsing and his wife were rather ing to be older than the man. It is said that on his return from one of his trips to New York he presented his wife with a $1,000 note, which she exhibited to her neighbors. She is said to have stated to neighbors that she had an income independent of her husband, who was a speculator and who was liable to be worth a milion today and be a pauper tomorrow. They paid only nominal rental for the cottage they occupied and it was by no means lavishly furnished. Upon leaving Dowsing and his wife presented some of their property to a neighbor. They are said to have left the sound several weeks ago.

"Judge" Bornemann Thankful

Justice G. W. Bornemann was naturally much elated yesterday over the fact that of the 25 magistrates who ran in Tuesday's election, he was second highest. This, too, in spite of the fact that he did not seek the office and refrained from the ordinary wiles of the politician before the election by shaking hands, etc. He is very thankful to his friends and desires to thank them each and everyone for the honor bestowed upon him promising that he will wear the judicial robes with equal and exact justice to all, rich and poor alike.

MR. GEO. H. BELLAMY ELECTED

Democratic Candidate for House Won In Brunswick County

A telephone message from Southport last night was to the effect that State Senator Geo. H. Bellamy, of Brunswick, who represented New Hanover and Brunswick counties in the last General Assembly, was elected in Tuesday's election for the House of Representatives from Brunswick county over his Republican opponent by a majority of 27 votes. This is the first time a Democrat has been elected a member of the House from Brunswick county in several years. Although the majority was very small, only 125 to 200, the Democrats are naturally jubilant over the outcome of the contest for the House.

HEALTHY WOMEN SCARCE.

Is the Verdict of Scientific Investigation.

How many women do you know who are perfectly well, strong and healthy as a woman should be? They may not be sick enough to lie in bed—but they are run-down, thin, nervous, tired and devitalized.

Women are so active nowadays, and so much is expected of them, that they constantly overdo and suffer from headache, backache, nervousness and kindred ills.

Such women need Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil which will create an apetite, tone up the digestive organs, make pure blood and create strength.

Mrs. W. G. Ritchie, Patchogue, N. Y., says: "Vinol is certainly the best tonic I have ever taken. I was run down and tired all the time, but, thanks to Vinol, I am feeling all right again."

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. R. R. Bellamy, Druggist, Wilmington, N. C.

MR. KINGSBURY ARRIVES.

New Manager of Western Union Came Yesterday—Takes Charge Today.

Wilmington people greeted most enthusiastically yesterday Mr. Theodore B. Kingsbury, Jr., who leaves the assistant managership of the Western Union office in Richmond, Va., to become manager of the extensive interests of the Western Union in this city, announcement of which very decided promotion was made in these columns a few days ago. Mr. Kingsbury needs no introduction to Wilmington people, having been born and reared here and he will be "at home" from the start. He assumes management of the local office today and will be glad to serve his friends and the general public to the very best of his ability.

Mr. G. E. Wood, the capable manager whom Mr. Kingsbury succeeds, resigned several weeks ago to engage in other business. He has made a host of friends in Wilmington who trust that he has found this city good enough to locate in and live for the remainder of his life. It would be a real pleasure to claim Mr. Wood and his excellent family as residents in the future.

Of interest to many friends in Wilmington and elsewhere in the State is the approaching marriage of Miss Laura Weil, of this city, and David Stern, Esq., of Greensboro. The wedding will take place at the residence of Mrs. George Honnet, Thursday, November 14th, and will be witnessed by only a few relatives and friends. Mr. Stern is a prominent member of the Greensboro bar.

DAUGHTER OF GOV. WILSON TO ATTEND WEDDING HERE

Richmond, Va., Nov. 8.—With Miss Wilson, a daughter of President-elect Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, as on of the bridesmaids, and a special train to carry the Richmond delegation to Wilmington, the marriage of Miss Marguerite Ashley Short, sister of Henry Blount Short, to Thomas Garnett Tabb, at St. James' Episcopal church, Wilmington, N. C., on November 21st, promises to be one of the most notable social events in years in the Old North State.

Mr. Tabb is a prominent insurance man of Richmond and is a member of several clubs. Miss Short's father was at one time identified with the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad. She is a niece of Bishop Robert Strange, of North Carolina.

Miss Katherine Gieschen and Mr. Fred Banck, who are to be the bride and groom in a coming wedding of much interest to a host of friends here and elsewhere, were handsomely entertained at a card party given in their honor by Miss Katharine Mohr at her home yesterday evening. After the games of hearts, dainty refreshments were served in which the color scheme and hearts were quite prominent. Then the party repaired to the sitting room to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, where the surprise of the evening was provided—a china shower. Each of the ladies had brought a piece of china as a gift to the bride-to-be, and the company had much enjoyment and pleasure as each package was being opened. The decorations were carried out in pink and blue, a feature of which was a large pink horseshoe inscribed with "Gieschen-Banck" in silvered letters. The affair was voted a most enjoyable occasion by all present.

HIS LAST REBELLION.

Gen. Valladares Killed by Government Troops in Skirmish.

Tegucigalpa, Honduras, Nov. 8.—Gen. Jose Maria Valladares, the noted revolutionist, who in years past has caused much trouble to the governments of Honduras and Nicaragua, has fomented his last uprising. He was killed yesterday by government troops in a skirmish near Ojojona, his native town, 25 miles southwest of Tegucigalpa.

The last uprising of Valladares was short lived. He started it yesterday near Ojojona and immediately came in contact with the government troops, in a short, sharp skirmish, in which he was shot. His death ended the outbreak.

Valladares hated foreigners, especially Americans. In 1910, when Fenton R. McCreery, the new American minister, reached Amapala, President Davilla wired the commandant of that port, Gen. Valladares, to receive Mr. McReery officially and accord him proper honors. Valladares replied that he would not receive "any of Taft's dogs with any honors" and Davilla was compelled to entrust the according of honors in his name to several Germans. Valladares later threatened the lives of foreigners and was ordered deposed.

Maxwell, Whiteville; J. Robert ...er, Waycross; A. B. Mathews, Durham; Sheriff W. R. Atkinson, Burgaw; O. B. Malpass, Currie.

—Among yesterday's guests at The Orton were P. H. Halley, Charlotte; H. C. Marley, Greensboro; Mr. and Mrs. D. M. McRackan and child, Whiteville; A. A. James, Laurinburg; N. A. Sinclair, Fayetteville; A. G. Holmes, Council; E. S. Richards, Raleigh; N. E. Sprowl, Rocky Mount; J. Bayard Clark, Elizabethtown; Jas. M. Northington, Boardman; H. M. Powell Fair Bluff; L. D. RULES WERE MODIFIED.

Less Trouble Hereafter in Passing Through Gates at Station.

Announcement was made yesterday that the officials of the Atlantic Coast Line had modified the regulations relative to persons entering the gates at the union station to meet relatives or friends, or to accompany them to their train in departing. It is said that the gatekeeper, Mr. R. S. Haddock, was instructed by General Manager W. N. Royall to use his own judgment in allowing persons without tickets to pass in and out the gates when there for the purpose of meeting a relative or friend, or to see them off. The general manager is said to have laid emphasis upon the fact that no loafing is to be allowed within the gates. The change in the rules is said to have been under consideration for several days.

Mr. Haddock said yesterday that the statement in yesterday's Star relative to the alleged experience of a young mother with a sick baby and a heavy suit case was not true. He said that had a woman with a sick child asked to have the person accompany her to go to the train to assist her he would most gladly have granted the request. He said that ladies coming to and leaving Wilmington have always been shown every courtesy possible since he has been gatekeeper and that under such circumstances as detailed in yesterday's paper had the women been unattended he would have closed the gate if necessary and helped her to the train with her baby and baggage. He says that a lady with a baby and a small handbag did pass through the gates Thursday afternoon, but no mention was made of the baby being sick, nor was the woman compelled to leave her child on the train and return to the gate for her suitcase. He said that she was accompanied to the gate by another lady and that he told her that it was against the rules to allow her to pass without a ticket and she merely replied that she was sorry.

PROPERTY LEVIED UPON.

Execution Issued in Case of Pinnix Realty Co. vs. K. C. Sidbury.

Execution was sent here Thursday from Greensboro in the case of the Pinnix Realty Company against K. C. Sidbury, Esq., in which judgment had been secured in Guilford Superior Court for $911.64 against the defendant, and the papers were served yesterday morning by Deputy Sheriff A. L. Kelly, all the realty owned by Mr. Sidbury in Wilmington township being levied upon. The value of the real estate levied upon, as shown by the tax books, is $3,875. It is said that the controversy between Messrs. Sidbury and the Pinnix Realty Co., of Greensboro, is the result of an alleged contract by which the defendant brought a band here and took other steps in connection with the sale of some real estate some time ago. Mr. Sidbury has a suit pending in Superior Court here against the Pinnix Realty Co.

UNITED STATES COURT.

The Fall Term Will Convene Here Tuesday of Next Week.

The Fall term of the United States District and Circuit Courts will convene here next Tuesday morning with Judge H. G. Connor, of Wilson, presiding. The first part of the term will be devoted to the trial of criminal matters and then civil causes will be heard. Mr. S. P. Collier, Clerk of the Court, said yesterday that the criminal side of the docket is unusually light and probably not more than three days will be required to dispose of the cases. On the civil side of the docket probably the most important is that of the Lucama diamond case, in which the government seeks to recover from the Atlantic Coast Line the value of diamonds alleged to have been lost in a wreck near Wilson some years ago.

Little Son Passes Away

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Benton will have the tenderest sympathy of a great many friends in the death of their two-months-old son, Harold Elroy Benton, which occurred at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the family residence, No. 322 South Fourth street, after a short illness of pneumonia. This is the fourth child the parents have lost. The fond parents were devoted to the little son and they are sorely bereaved at his passing. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, conducted by Rev. J. S. Crowley, and interment will be in Oakdale cemetery.

PORTO RICO'S NEW WONDER.

From far away Porto Rico come reports of a wonderful new discovery that is believed will vastly benefit the people. Ramon T. Marchan, of Barceloneta, writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is doing splendid work here. It cured me about five times of terrible coughs and colds, also my brother of a severe cold in his chest and more than 20 others, who used it on my advice. We hope this great medicine will yet be sold in every drug store in Porto Rico." For throat and lung troubles it has no equal. A trial will convince you of its merit. 50c and $1.00. "Excuse Me" will be at the Academy Tuesday night. "Excuse Me" is clever American farce and a distinct success. It was written by Rupert Hughes and is a Henry W. Savage offering. It caught on at the jump when it was produced in New York and it remained on Broadway nine months, where there was a six months' run. Runs like these, which are extraordinary, are the best of all endorsements of "Excuse Me". They indicate unmistakably that it is wonderfully entertaining and thoroughly pleases

The run included last Summer and lasted several weeks this season. They went to Boston where the hit it made kept it going four months. Meantime a company was formed for Chicago the great majority of playgoers. It is a farce and claims to be just that. A college education is not necessary to its enjoyment, but would not lessen the pleasure of it, as its comedy is rational and real and tickles the risibilities irrespective of condition, sex or age. "Excuse Me" is a chunk of the humor that exists in the present everyday world. Passengers board a train in Chicago and travel to Reno. They are amusing persons whom chance and fate have fun the entire trip. Comic events come uninterruptedly and there is laughter for the onlooker every moment. A young army officer and the girl he has run off with have the chief love romance in "Excuse Me." Events compel them to start on the trip before they have been married. They are constantly on the lookout for a minister and meantime pretend to quarrel to account for their behavior to the other passengers who think they are bride and bridegroom. A husband and wife, each secretly going to Reno for divorce, travel on the same train, so does a cranky woman hater and the woman who made him such by rejecting him years before. She is a missionary now and quite willing to accept him. There are a country parson and his wife who for the first time in 30 years are free from the observation of his flock and eager for the time being to forget his cloth and the decorum it implies. There are other passengers who figure actively in the lively events of the journey, while the train conductor, the Pullman porter and the newsboy heighten the humor of it all. The whole idea of the farce is excellent. It is novel, too. The entire action is represented as taking place in the Pullman cars of the Overland Limited Express train. The stage effects are strikingly realistic. Seats will go on sale Monday.

Grand Theatre.

As usual the Grand Theatre will have something just a little better for the big week-end crowds today and all patrons of this pretty little playhouse, in the heart of Wilmington's business district, are invited to drop down and see it. The crowds yesterday were delighted with the big bill, especially "The Charge of the Light Brigade," which proved to be one of the strongest moving picture films ever put on in Wilmington, but today the offering will be equally as large.

The feature in the pictures is "Bunny at the Derby". Everybody in the moving picture fraternity knows Bunny, the premier picture star in the world, and in his little donkey cart he attends the great English derby. It is funnier than the proverbial box of monkeys and everybody should see the favorite comedian in this new and virile role. Another of the features for today is "Jim's Vindication." It is one of the thrilling wild West stories that has a hair raiser in every flicker of the machine. Then with these two there will be a third film and the always delightfully new and catchy song of Mr. Leonard Chick. The number for today will be "Hitchy Koo", the latest novelty in New York and one that should compel attention in any audience where it has been sung. It is written by the writer of "Waiting for the Robert E. Lee," Al Johnson's big hit at the Winter Garden.

All roads lead to the Grand these days and the pictures, the complete orchestra and the soloist are features that appeal to all in the realm of popular amusement lovers.

At the Bijou.

Recognizing the fact that while every day is virtually children's day at the popular Bijou, yet Saturday is more so, the clever, enterprising management of this amusement palace has secured a really wonderful bill for today—one that will immensely tickle the ladies and children. Still, so fine has been the selection that it will make a powerful appeal to all grown-ups. So today at the Bijou is going to be a big one, making a swell week-end, and, of course, the price of admission will not be raised. It will always be 5 cents. Amusement lovers, too, must bear in mind the solid comfort ways of the Bijou, which makes it a place sought for no matter the type of weather.

"The Toymakers" heads today's big bill, and it is just such a film as will strike the fancy of the children. The leading characters are an old toymaker and a little girl. It is a film bricht and sparkling and yet one of thrills.

"The Unexpected Reception" is a great clown film on today, so that all may shout with laughter. It tells of how a young fellow goes with a big bunch of birthday presents, for two old maids, being sent by relatives As they are not home he attempts to enter the window and leave them. Then a bull dog appears and the situation is complicated in such novel manner as to cause roars of genuine mirth.

"Jim's Partner" is another stirring photoplay for today. Jim is neglectful of his wife, who loves him dearly. She elopes with his partner and Jim, a hot-headed Westerner, pursues, and the consequences are decidedly exciting, though having a happy finale.

From this big array it can be readily seen that today is going to be a big one at the fascinating Bijou.

AT THE ACADEMY.

"The Would-be Society Woman" will be presented at the Academy of Music tonight under the auspices of the Whatsoever Circle of King's Daughters. It is a bright and humorous comedy that will surely please all who attend. The proceeds will be given to the Stonewall Jackson Manual Training School at Concord and the worthy object of the entertainment should within itself attract a large audience. The play will be participated in by some of the best local talent and the performance promises to be a credit to those taking part. Seats may be reserved today at Plummer's. Reserved seats are 50 cents and the general admission is 35 cents.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Services at Immanuel Presbyterian church tomorrow at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M., conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. S. Crowley.

—Execution was issued yesterday by the Clerk of Superior Court in a case of the A. W. Pate Co., against F. J. Gooding to satisfy a judgment obtained by the plaintiff against the defendant for $187.50. The papers will probably be served today.

—Spot cotton on the local market reached the highest point of the season yesterday, the quotation being placed at 12 cents. The net receipts were 4,195 bales, comparing with 3,111 on the same day last year, when nine cents was the price offered.

—Henry Williams, colored, was arrested yesterday morning by Deputy Sheriff Reynolds on a peace warrant. The negro resisted and fought the officer vigorously with the result that two additional charges have been made against him—resisting an officer and carrying a concealed weapon. He will be tried before Justice Harriss today.

ACTION WAS DEFERRED.

Council May Settle the Incinerator Question This Morning.

City Council met yesterday morning for a conference on the incinerator question, but on account of the absence of Councilman W. E. Perdew and Mr. McKee, representative of the Decaire Incinerator Co., which has the contract for an incinerator, the matter was not taken up. Another conference will be held this morning and it is likely that action will be taken at that time. The question to be settled by the Council is in regard to financing the proposition. Members of Council who are in favor of purchasing the incinerator say they are of the opinion that some way will be found by which satisfactory financial arrangements may be made.

Bids for furnishing the city 1,000 feet of fire hose were opened. Four firms submitted bids. It was practically decided to award the contract to the Eureka Fire Hose Manufacturing Company, of New York, at $1.10 a foot.

THE CORRECTED VOTE.

Tabulated Returns From Tuesday's General Election in New Hanover.

Elsewhere in today's paper will be found a corrected tabulation of the vote in the general election and Senatorial primary in New Hanover on Tuesday of this week, several errors having occurred in the tabulation as given yesterday. The vote as now given is practically as correct as is possible at this time to give and shows that Sheriff Cowan leads the ticket with 2,084 votes. This is very gratifying and one that should be especially pleasing to the sheriff and his numerous friends throughout the county. Sheriff Cowan is very thankful to his friends and the general public for the very handsome vote given him.

Mixed Up on Princess Street.

A carriage belonging to the Orrell Livery Company and engaged by Mrs. Warren Jones was badly damaged yesterday at noon at Third and Princess streets when a coal cart was hurled into the vehicle by a passing street car. Mrs. Jones was accompanied by another lady and they were stepping to the ground when the accident occurred. Fortunately neither was hurt.

Big Song by Mr. Chick.

New York's latest song hit and three great pictures for the week-end at the Grand Theatre today.

MORE BIG GAINS IN COTTON REPORT ON COTTON GINNING STOCKS AGAIN REACTIONARY

Another Excited Advance in the Market Carried Prices $1.50 Per Bale Higher Than Previous Day's Close—Reaction

New York, Nov. 8.—There was another and still more excited advance in the cotton market today, which established new high records for the season and carried prices fully $1.50 per bale above the closing figures of last night on a bullish view of the ginning returns. Heavy realizing and considerable selling for a reaction finally checked the upward movement and caused a reaction of several points but the close was steady, with last prices 2 to 20 points net higher. The market opened steady at a decline of 11 points on December and 5 points on January but generally unchanged, but quickly developed extreme firmness on the census report showing 8,848,000 bales ginned to November 1st, against 9,970,000 last year.

The figures proved smaller than looked for and judging from the talk around the ring, as well as by the action of the market, the report was considered as favoring the smaller estimates of the crop. At any rate the buying movement became general. Not only was there a fresh demand from the outside sources, but old longs who had taken profits lower down appeared to be re-placing their cotton and it was rumored that some of the stronger shorts, who had opposed the recent advance, were also covering.

Realizing was very heavy, while there was also some selling for a setback, but only slight reactions occurred until the market had reached a net gain of from 28 to 31 points. Twelve cent predictions materialized, when January sold up to 12.06, and at the level demand seemed to slacken, while profit-taking by old longs became heavier, and the market eased off from the best in the trading, when selling was encouraged to some extant by reports from New Orleans that Southern spot markets were not fully following the upward movement.

Spot closed steady. Middling uplands, 12.20; do. gulf, 12.45; sales, 150 bales.

Cotton futures closed steady.

Opening Was at a Wide Variety of Losses, Which Were Somewhat Extended by Midday—Declines Made Up.

New York, Nov. 8.—Stocks were again reactionary today, opening with a wide variety of losses, which were somewhat extended by midday, but making up much of their decline towards the end. A factor in the recovery was the government crop report, issued in the final hour. This fully confirmed the brilliant outlook in the past few months, especially as to corn.

The indicated crop of that cereal is 150,000,000 bushels more than a month ago, the estimated total for the year being 3,169,137,000 bushels as against last year's final figures of 2,531,488,000. Then too, the quality as of November 1st was fixed at 101.1 which compares with a 10-year average of 84.5 and the yield per acre is estimated at 29.3, compared with last year's final output of 23.9.

Prior to the issuance of the agricultural statement almost all stocks of importance displayed varying degrees of heaviness. Foremost among these was Louisville & Nashville, which yielded three points, while Harrimans, the Canadian group, Grangers, Coalers and Trunk lines were off 1 to 2 1-2 points.

The leading industrials also suffered from persistent selling, United States Steel declining over 1 1-2 points, with a similar loss for Amalgamated Copper and other metal issues. The heaviness of the coppers was coincident with the publication of the October report of the producers, which disclosed a very large increase in production and a marked decline in foreign demand.

Local money conditions were mildly disturbing, call loans being quoted at 5 1-2 to 6 per cent., the higher rate bing established in the later dealings and holding to the end. A small gain in cash may be shown tomorrow.

Bonds were irregular, with total sales, par value, $2,125,000. United States government bonds were unchanged. Total sales today 547,100 shares.

THE WEEKLY COTTON REVIEW

Prices Have Advanced Steadily Under Stimulus of a Big Spot Demand, Killing Frosts and Broadening Speculation

New York, Nov. 8.—Cotton has advanced under the stimulus of a big spot demand, home and foreign, widespread killing frost, heavy rains east of the Mississippi, which aggravate the damage, and finally a broadening speculation. This had been accompanied by a tendency to reduce crop estimates. Some are as low as 13,250,000 bales.

The season was late east of the Mississippi and then came killing frosts on the nights of November 1st and 2nd on both sides of the Mississippi river. While the crop estimates at the present time do not seem as a rule to exceed 14,500,000 bales and are more apt to be 14,000,000 to 14,250,000 bales and in some cases are less than 14,000,000 bales, the expectation of many close students of cotton conditions is that the world's consumption of American cotton will approximate 14,500,000 bales and if suitable grades can be had may even approach 15,000,000 bales, thus establishing a new high record. Bulls argue that if with trade comparatively poor last year the cotton world was able to handle with such surprising ease a crop of 16,200,000 bales, it can certainly handle this year one of 14,000,000 to 14,500,000 bales with the trade exhibiting a revival, not only in cotton goods, but in woolen and silks, to say nothing of the business awakening throughout the great avenues of trade in general. The assurance, too, of President-elect Wilson that the American business man has nothing to fear has also had a good effect. Yet as regards the tariff, bulls maintain it could be reduced without serious harm to the cotton manufacturing industry as the production of coarse cotton is a feature of American trade, which could very easily stand the test of foreign competition. However, this may be the tariff is certainly not a feature of the market.

What the average member of trade has his eyes fixed upon are the crop reports seemingly pretending a smaller yield than was at one time expected and the big demand. If the world's consumption of American cotton equals that of last year a crop of 14,000,000 bales, it is argued, might easily have the effect of bringing about much higher prices. Liverpool straddlers have bought freely here at times and so have some of the spot houses and traders short of the market, including, it seems, some of the Waldorf-Astoria element, who recently took the short side. Of late there has been some profit-taking by large Wall Street interests, but the cotton was well absorbed. Liverpool spot sales have been 10,000 to 12,000 bales a day. Manchester has been strong. Printcloths sales have been liberal. On the other hand the receipts at Texas points have continued large. The tendency has been to build up considerable long interest here. Some have apprehended a large total ginning report to appear on the eighth, instant. The South has been a steady seller against the actual cotton. At times, too, some of the large spot houses have sold. After an advance of $8 on a bale, it is argued that there ought to be a reaction. The general sentiment, however, has become noticeably bullish. The ginners report showed a total smaller than expected, that is 8,849,9998, against 9,970,905 up to November 1st last year. This included on the one hand 3,699,124 in Texas, against 3,211,572 last year and on the other only 1,110,915 bales in Georgia, against 1,905,761 last year.

in 1908 in the case of Frederick Holznagle, the Scranton, Penn., hotel keeper, who was swindled out of $15,000 on a fake prize fight. Prior to these star acts of crime the brothers had been arrested in almost every section of the country for swindles of all kinds from "Bohemian Oats," "Gold Bricks," "Green Goods" and the old-fashioned style of real wire-tapping. They were distinguished for their ability to wriggle their way out of every tight place they got into and never served any extended time behind the bars, but whenever a shorn lamb comes down to New York police headquarters asking the authorieles to temper the wind to him, the police promptly send a couple of detectives to invite the Gondorfs down and give explanations of their performances. Some of their close associates have been such notorious crooks and swindlers as Big Whitney, Black Mike Ohlenburg, Big Fred Williams, Deafy Morris, C. J. Tompkins and Punk Drucker.

Mr. Sidbury Refuses to Talk

Although the identity of the steerer and his wife who baited the game at Wilmington first, is being carefully guarded by Commissioner Dougherty and concealed by Attorney Kirby Cleveland Sidbury, who is stopping so quietly in such secluded quarters that reporters fail to locate him for interviews, it is the general impression while the steerer has not yet been arrested but that he may be any minute, provided it is not the Kay already under arrest. Your correspondent learned, despite the reticence of the police on the subject, that the steerer sometimes goes under the name of "J. N. Dawsing."

Still More Arrests

As this is being wired, report of two more arrests made tonight come over the 'phone, one in Brooklyn and another, Charles Carbonell, as he describes himself, 37 years old, in Manhattan, in the Wilmington case. He was arrested by Detective Daly and brought to headquarters charged with being implicated in swindling Simon Jones, of Pittsburg, Penn., out of $20,600 in the same house in West Eighty-first street where Sidbury placed his last bets. Carbonell refused to make a statement and was held on the detective's short affidavit under $10,000 bail for Tuesday while his record can be looked up The Brooklyn arrest has not yet been called up but will be disposed of later

New York, Nov. 9.—Attorney Sidbury at police headquarters has identified the prisoner arrested tonight in Brooklyn in connection with the Wilmingtonians swindled here. He was well dressed and said he was a speculator residing in a swell apartment house at 421 West One Hundred and Fifty-second street, which has been partially verified. He was brought to police headquarters and taken before Deputy Commissioner Dougherty, who said he recognized him as "Slippery Joe" Eaton, who has been known to the police of this and other cities for many years and whose speculating was confined so far as the police know to swindling enterprises and gambling on the race tracks and in gambling houses. When placed in a long line of men at headquarters' "third degree room" Attorney Sidbury immediately picked him out as the sleek individual who to comfort him in his last loss of $5,000 October 26th told Sidbury to "brace up and be a good sport" and "never squeal over losses any more than for spilled milk," "and just go home and keep mum and dig up some more money" and to come back and beat the game as he surely would in the end. Sidbury said Eaton posed as a rich Philadelphia physician and alleged that only the day before he had missed connections "and lost over $25,000, but that as he was a "game sport and believed the hair of the dog was good for the bite he was going to risk, if necessary, though not at one time, another $25,000. Eaton, or Hunter, as he called himself, was locked up without bail for arraignment tomorrow. The police are still "mum" about the steerer.

(By Associated Press.)

New York, Nov. 8.—William Hunter, Chesterfieldian, aged 60, was arrested in Brooklyn today and held in $10,000 bail on the charge of complicity in the alleged wire-tapping game in which Kirby C. Sidbury and Dr. J. W. Powell, of Wilmington, N. C., recently lost $25,000. Hunter is the fourth man arrested on this charge.

At police headquarters, Sidbury picked Hunter from a group of men and said he was the man that played the part of a doctor at the fake pool room and pretended to lose $25,000.

THE TEST FOR WILSON.

London Paper Says It Will Come When He Takes Up Britain's Protest.

London, Nov. 8.—The Saturday Evening Review, commenting on the election of Woodrow Wilson to the Presidency of the United States, says the test of Mr. Wilson's character and statesmanship will come when he takes up Great Britain's protest against the Panama Canal bill.

His success as Governor of New Jersey," said the Saturday Review, "was due to the belief that he stands for honesty in politics and he will carry that standard of honor to the White House."

The paper adds that by rejecting the casuistry by which the Republican administration justified the Panama Canal bill, "he will show the American people that he is ready to give them the clean politics they desire."

PLANS FOR INAUGURATION.

Chairman McCombs Will Have Charge of the Arrangements.

Washington, Nov. 8.—Local Democratic circles are already actively discussing plans for the inauguration parade, inauguration ball, and inauguration ceremonies generally on March 4th next. Chairman McCombs, of the Democratic National Committe, will designate the chairman of the Washington committee to take charge of the arrangements and the National chairman also usually selects the grand marshal of the inaugural parade.

The names of several army officers, active and retired, have been mentioned in connection with the post of grand marshal.

BRADSTREET'S TRADE REVIEW

Presidential Election Has Little Effect On Industry

New York, Nov. 8.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

The Presidential election has come and gone with the barest possible apparent effect upon trade and industry. Neither the election itself nor its results, sweeping as they are, have thus far changed the optimistic undertone previously characterizing trade sentiment.

In short, natural conditions coincident with heavy crop yields and consequent heavy consumptive requirements continue predominent in trade and industrial circles.

Buying is large and in lines that may in the long run feel the effects of prospective tariff rdevisions.

Trade in staple lines is active, demand for hiloday goods is increasing and in dry goods markets orders for the coming season are of good proportions.

Incidentally most industries report well-filled order books, which insures a comparatively long spell of active operations.

Two essential articles, coal and groceries, are in brisk demand, while such needful commodities as dry goods, hats and caps and shoes and clothing are being taken in volume. All but a very few sections contribute favorable reports, the negatives being finished by a comparatively small area in the South Atlantic States.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending November 7th were 209 against 457 last week; 237 in the like of 1911; 207 in 1910; 211 in 1909 and 267 in 1908.

VIRGINIA TOWN DESTROYED.

Brookneal Completely Wiped Out by Fire—Will Rebuild.

Lynchburg, Va., Nov. 8.—Brookneal, a town of 500, 24 miles south of Lynchburg, suffered the worst fire in its history early this morning when 25 buildings, including the postoffice, the Bank of Brookneal, the Baptist church and 12 stores were burned. The loss is estimated by E. R. Monroe, president of the Bank of Brookneal, at $150,000 and insurance at $35,000. The entire contents of the postoffice were burned.

The bank's money and records are thought to be safe, the vault being too hot to be opened today. The fire caught from a defective flue. It was discovered at 3:30 o'clock and in two hours the business section was in ruins. Brookneal has no fire protection save a small chemical engine. The town will rebuild.

VANDERBILT VS. HARVARD

North and South Will Meet on the Gridiron Today

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 8.—North and South will meet on the gridiron tomorrow, when the Vanderbilt University eleven plays Harvard in the Stadium, in the first athletic contest of any kind between the two universities.

Harvard was the favorite tonight in what little betting took place, principally because of its supposed superiority in the game, and also because of the excess of 17 pounds in weight per man.

The Southerners reached here today, after a 1,200-mile journey. Half an hour after their arrival they were in the Stadium, running through their signals, catching punts and getting accustomed to the lights of the amphitheatre. Later the team went to New ton to spend the night.

INVOLUNTARY BALLOONIST.

Bladen Man Brings Suit Against Cumberland Fair Association.

Fayetteville, N. C., Nov. 8.—The Observer this afternoon says:

"Mr. James W. Smith, the gentleman from Bladen county who was caught up in the air' and given an involuntary balloon ride during the fair here in October, has entered suit against the Cumberland County Agricultural Association as the cause of having his (Smith's) life placed in jeopardy by an unsought for aerial trip.

"It is likely that this suit will attract much attention and prove of great interest. Messrs. Shaw & McLean, Robinson & Lyon and A. S. Hall, Esq., are Smith's lawyers. The case will be tried in Bladen county."

NINE KILLED ON L. & N.

Fifteen Injured in Head-on Collision at Emerson, Ga.

Cartersville, Ga., Nov. 8.—Nine men were killed and 15 others injured in a head-on collision between a Louisville & Nashville freight train and a work train at Emerson, near here, late this afternoon. A. B. Baker, of Knowlton, and B. Blankenship, of Cass station, Ga., foreman and assistant foreman of the work gang, respectively, were among the dead. The others were negroes.

The wreck is said to have been due to a misunderstanding of signals. It will be 36 hours before the tracks are cleared of the wreckage and it is stated the bodies of several negro workmen may be buried under the cars.

Charleston, S. C., Nov. 8.—A man who had entered his name on the hotel register as H. C. Laurence, of Philadelphia, but who is believed to have been H. C. Laird, of 89 Chestnut street, Lebanon, Pa., was found dead in a bath room at a local hotel today. Internal hemorrhage was the cause of death. An identification card and letter found on his person gave the man's name as "Harry C. Laird."

All Wilmington Coughing!

Death from a gun-shot wound less to be feared than Death from pneumonia.

A great number of our city's men, women and children have colds and coughs today. The air seems to be fairly laden with these throat and lung troubles. There is great danger of contracting pneumonia or consumption from them. Nearly every case has its beginning in a cold or cough, and many people die as a result. Beware!

A sudden chill, stupefying fever, sore throat, hoarseness, running nose, racking cough, rattling and wheezing in chest, painful breathing, signify that your cold borders on pneumonia.

There are many remedies offered for colds, but there is one certain, reliable article that we know of—DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP. It is best for soothing and subduing the inflamed, sore, bronchial tubes and lungs. It wards off pneumonia. It checks cough at once. Cuts a cold short. Don't wait to see if your cold or cough wears away of itself, as pneumonia may come over night.

Test it first by sending a postal for a free sample. Address A. C. MEYER & CO., Baltimore, Md. But, to have no delay, get a regular bottle of the remedy; price, 25 cents, from your druggist today. This is the best advice we can give to avoid pneumonia. (ADV.)

been appointed Governor of Saloniki and will start for that city tomorrow.

Appeal for Holy War.

Constantinople, Nov. 8.—The Sheik-Ul-Islam, head of the heirarchy in Turkey, today issued the following appeal for a holy war in a manifesto addressed to the Ulemas and Hodkas:

"With a view to exciting and encouraging the soldiers of the enemies who surround us, the priests with the cross in their hands are working in accord with the army. It is not fitting that our Ulemas should neglect the accomplishing of a similar duty.

"In order that the victory and glory promised by the Almighty may be granted without delay to the Ottoman army, it is necessary that the veneral Ulemas organize a Jihad. Such a holy war has moreover become an obligation if the position of the Ottoman soldiers, who all are heroes, is to be strengthened."

There have been rumors for a day or two that the ministry was unstable, owing to its request for mediation by the united powers, but the newspapers say this situation has given way before the demand of the army and of public opinion that the war be continued. The common danger seems to have united all parties. This is shown by the profound outbursts of all newspapers of all political shades urging a fight to a finish.

The explanation of this new-born unanimity may be found in the suggestion of one of the high government officials that even if it is found impossible to hold the lines at Tchatalja, other defenses are possible before the enemy can reach this city. Every male who has reached the age of 19 years will be expected to be ready to perform his share in the duty of protecting the capital.

There has been no development in the direction of mediation by the powers in the war with the Balkans, according to official information here. France, Great Britain and Russia are endeavoring to obtain the adherence of the triple alliance—Germany, Austria and Italy—to a policy of "disinterestedness" before undertaking mediation, but their success is doubtful. It appears that France, Russia and Great Britain side with the Balkan allies, while Germany, Austria and Italy lean toward Turkey. The upshoot of this situation is awaited here with some concern.

FREAK BETS NOW BEING PAID.

Some Cases in Which Election's Result Brought Woe.

(Special to Baltimore Sun.)

New York, Nov. 7.—Many are harvesting woe after sowing rich crops of freak election bets.

Correspondents all over the country report that the crop of freak election bettors is more flourishing this year than ever before. Corroborative evidence is furnished with each report. For instance:

A Chicago broker who bet his wife that Taft would win has discharged his beautiful blonde stenographer and hired one who had red hair, freckles and wears spectacles.

In South Norwalk, Conn., a pretty school teacher will wear white silk stockings and low white pumps all Winter long. She bet on "T. R."

From Westfield, N. J., comes the report that one of the low handicap men in the Westfield Golf Club will play all matches for the remainder of the year with only two clubs—a drive and a putter. He bet the Bull Moose ticket would prevail in New Jersey.

Washington is full of penitent freak bettors. One fried an egg on the steps of the National Capitol.

Another tried to carry an egg on a fork up the steps of the Washington Monument. He dropped it half way up and a guard made him clean the steps.

A third Washington bettor, who believed in Taft, donned knee breches and rode a boy's velocipede to the White House entrance, shouting through a megaphone: "I'm glad Wilson won!"

FIVE BILLION HARVEST.

Largest Corn Crop Ever Grown in the World in Prospect.

Washington, Nov. 8.—A corn crop of 3,169,137,000 bushels, or 281,921 bushels more than the greatest crop of corn ever grown in any country of the world, is the feature of the country's most remarkable agricultural year in history, according to the November crop report of the United States Department of Agriculture issued today. The report completed the government's preliminary estimates of the Nation's principal farm crops. This great crop of corn was worth on November 1st to farmers $1,850,776,000.

The enormous sum of $4,171,134,000 represented the farm value on November 1 of the United States crop of corn, hay, oats, wheat, potatoes, flax seed, rye and buckwheat. With the value of the growing cotton crop and the crops of tobacco, rice and apples, the aggregate value of these principal farm products will amount well beyond five billion dollars.

There was an increase in the total value of each of these crops, excepting buckwheat, potatoes, barley and rye. The increase netted $515,057,000 over the value of last year's crops. Record crops of corn, potatoes, flaxseed, oats, barley, rye and hay were harvested this year. The government's official estimates of the value of the various crops and its final estimates of total production will be announced in December.

The yield per acre and production of corn in North Carolina is 18.2 and 51,106 bushels.
